

Delaware Posting Requirements

Delaware employers should display the following state posters in the workplace, in addition to the required federal posters:

- Delaware Labor Law Poster (required)
- Delaware Unemployment Insurance — Notice of Coverage (required, furnished by the Division of Unemployment Insurance).

The Delaware Labor Law Poster incorporates postings for payment of wages, minimum wage, meal breaks, child labor, discrimination, and workers' compensation.

Important: Local jurisdictions in Delaware may have additional posting requirements. Employers should contact their particular local jurisdiction for specifics.